As time slips by I awaken from my sleep
Too blind to see that tomorrow's just a dream
Destination Paradise kiss the sky
Follow on, along the line fate's what I'll find Suicide our hearts embrace
Life and death become a race
With these eyes
I've seen broken dreams
At the end of the world,
Where paradise begins
Search myself, the demons

I have to face crawling out of my life on my knees
crushed my spirit,
Oh my god, to it's knees
As you speak I form a plan
Of just revenge upon the man
And all the stories I've heard are true
Also the tales of your darkness too
I fear no pain as I reach towards the sky
Immortal words was I really born to die
The failed messiah wannabe
Either way I find it hard to believe

Freedom, till the morning light
Demons from the dark of the night
Freedom, real not fantasy
Alter my reality
