Besiege me not for what I am a man with intent in the Devil's den for I know not what to believe yet mad I am not in trust I deceive Radical alterations in my temper grows worse day by day I will offer you extreme opposition

Savage curtain closes in on you but I do grieve the evident
behind this illusion

The fury of demons possessing me my fiendish corruption will fill my need every reason to fulfill my deed.
Have we not a perpetual inclination to violate that witch is law merely because we know it is to be?

Savage curtain closes in on you
but I do grieve the evident
behind this illusion

(Solo)

Savage curtain closes in on you
behind this illusion
