Deep within a tiny box, shadowed truth under the locks
Burns inside your heart - then it starts
the straw that breaks the back

Your soul stretched on the rack
Watch the make-up crack...

Secrets within, living in sin.
Got no peace of mind, now you're going blind
No one needs to know, watch the cancer grow Feel it eating - Secrets within have sold - Don't tell a soul.

Secrets hurt if they are told, someone's trust you will Hear the cry inside of you, live the lie or speak the truth - when will it end?

Watch the make - up crack...
Your soul stretched on the rack
the straw that breaks the back
Got no peace of mind, now you're going blind

Secrets within, living in sin.
No one better know, feel the cancer grow

Feel it eating - Secrets within your mind
[Solo]

Got no peace of mind, now you're going blind
Secrets within, living in sin.
No one needs to know, watch the cancer grow
Feel it eating - Secrets within your mind
