Things went to far
I took your life
For a way to easy price
But you took mine

Have you ever been in an a assassins shoes?
That's something you will never know
It's not a work for a regular guy
Taking people's lifes without goodbies

I thought I'd be easier
To break you down without guns
But your piercing eyes
Just took my life

Have you ever been in an a assassins shoes?
That's something you will never know
It's not a work for a regular guy
Taking people's lifes without goodbies

I dont know how
I dont know why,
I were an assassin in my former life
I took your life
Without goodbye

I were an assassin in my former life
I were an assassin
I were an assassin

I dont know how
I dont know why,
I were an assassin in my former life

Have you ever been in an a assassins shoes?
That's something you will never know
It's not a work for a regular guy
