I begin my life with a brand new name
I dont know what this journey will contain.
I can hear the black crow screaming out his pain

All bracelets are gone
And there's nowhere to go
I never begged for that
Try to open the door to see whats home
I'm getting welcomed by a breath of stone

Filled up with failures up to my eyes
Can you see how fast submergence dries?
It feels like everythings on repeat
Good night, Sleep tight!
I pull over the sheet

All bracelets are gone
And there's nowhere to go
I never begged for that
Try to open the door to see whats home
I'm getting welcomed by a breath of stone

I'm starting again
I wont give you my hand
It's all up to me
I'll do this myself
I'm starting again
I wont give you my hand
It's all up to me
I'll do this myself

All bracelets are gone
And there's nowhere to go
I never begged for that
Try to open the door to see whats home
I'm getting welcomed by a breath of stone
