At this chapter I will tell you how it is
I'm started to lose myself and losing my belives
Why aint someone telling me who I should be?
I will be around this place

I'll be here to the end

On and on, Sitting by the sea
At the horizon, I move on
I am strong
Nothing here can break me down
I'm the hero of my own

All I wanted was to hear my songs on the radio
Just sing along and live my life

But now it all is gone

On and on, Sitting by the sea
At the horizon, I move on
I am strong
Nothing here can break me down
I'm the hero of my own

The night has come
To an end
A new day is here
Come on!

On and on, Sitting by the sea
At the horizon, I move on
I am strong
Nothing here can break me down
I'm the hero of my own6
