I've been cursed by your lies
But yet I survived
Without fear, Without tears in my eyes
I've been searching for a home
But what they dont know
I will always be on my own

I am just here to make sure everyone see what you are
You are a cunt without redemption
Too many lies just gave me proves of who you are
And this is my sunrise and your sunset

Break my wings and try to hold me to the ground
No matter what you do
I'll still be able to fly
I can see what went wrong
And from now on I will never bring you along

I am just here to make sure everyone see what you are
You are a cunt without redemption
Too many lies just gave me proves of who you are
And this is my sunrise and your sunset

I can see what went wrong
And from now on I will never bring you
Along

I am just here to make sure everyone see what you are
You are a ccunt without redemption
Too many lies just gave me proves of who you are
And this is my sunrise and your sunset
I am just here to make sure everyone see what you are
And this is my sunrise and your sunset
