I stand alone
So no-one can hurt me
I keep my head held high
My head held high

You'll never strike me down
And all I taste is the bitterness you left on my tongue
I won't forgive and forget
And I won't close my eyes to the truth

And how can we live our lives
When there's no backbone inside?
And how can you say we even tried
Now I can't help but ask this

So where do we go from here?
When I can never trust a word that comes from you
And I know that I could never be that sure
Never be that sure

I've heard this a thousand times
And I'm so sick of hearing your confessions
I can't believe
What you've done to me

I look back
As your shadow watches over everything I do
I'm plagued with the memories
For everything you put me through

And how can we live our lives
When there's no backbone inside?
And how can you say we even tried
Now I can't help but ask this

So where do we go from here?
When I can never trust a word that comes from you
And I know that I could never be that sure
Never be that sure

I never promised you the world

Instead you brought this on yourself
Another time
Another place

Save all your excuses
How dare you even speak my name
For I've been watching
For I've been watching over you
You make me sick 'til I can't breathe
For how you act like it's nothing

You can't escape this
You can't escape this hell!

You can't escape this
You can't escape this!
