You're everythin I ever wanted to know
You're everythin I never want to let go
You're everythin I always thought you would be
It's hard for me but plain for you to see
That you tear me apart
You've done it right from the start

Today dont take you away
It's all in the way
You push me away
I can't help and I can't make
You sway my way
It's all in the way
You push me away
Don't take you away

You say you never wanted this from the start
You say you don't want nothin at all
You say you never wanted to hurt me
It was hard for me but plain for you to see
That you tear me apart
You've done it right from the start

Today dont take you away
It's all in the way
You push me away
I can't help but I can't make
You sway my way
It's all in the way
You push me away
Don't take you away
