You place your hate on me and never feel your wrong
The words for war you will soon regret
The time has come for me to show you what sets us apart
I'm the one, I'm the man, that cannot be bent
Can't you see you're falling
And I'm the one still standing
Then you'll know you're fucked
Cause I know you're so breakable
You seem to think I'm the dirt on which you walk
And when this ground gives way, no you wont forget

This time will be the last time I deal with it
I'm the one, I'm the man, with your death intent
Can't you see you're falling
And I'm the one still standing
Then you'll know you're fucked
Cause I know you're so breakable
You can't take it back now
The words you have thrown around
What comes around, goes around
And I wont change my ways to fit inside your world
