It's all right
To forget what I left behind
And my life
Becomes the ride, it's my surrendering

And I'll fight
To live the ride
And I'll fight
To survive

Just one
Lets me forget how it used to be
And this time
I lose myself behind her face
Circles I've traveled in
Seem to come in close
And so familiar
We've been here before

Tell me you found it
In patterns we knew about
Spoken from breezes
Who had it all figured out
Teach me to fight
Storms I've been running from
Teach me to fight
Teach me to fight

I will not not forget
Just who I am
