Can you fathom this
And recreate the puzzle
Would you like the lights on
Or anticipate what is coming

Be still
I'll be right here
In the shadows
That contour

Just what are you thinking of
I can't point fingers at
The others that push me

You never know just how far that you can push morality
Provoking reactions
I can push this
Pulling tight across your skin
While collecting energy
Morals have been broken
I can push this

Try to soak it up
Now you can fathom this
