Thick skin, I'll break it to ya
Bleed none and wallow in your
The bed they made for you

Pushed further to resistance
It's hell when you still run to
The bed they made for you

Fight yourself
Down till you're well

Thick skin, I'm mangled uptight
Unwind and never survive
The bed they made for you

Evolved into your monster
Thick head, thick skin
The bed they made for you

Fight yourself
Down till you're well

The bed they made for you

You've become the lie
It eats you up inside
It's said and done, game over

Fight yourself
Down till you're well
