Never been here before
Never opened up this door
But I got a feelin'
It's just like the others
Never heard him laugh before
Never felt him feel before
But I got a feeling it's just like the others

He's got a big boot
He's got a big hand
He's got a big fist to put me down

Here we go again

Never heard him lie before
Never heard him cry before
But I got a feeling it's just like all the others
Never heard him dream
Never felt it before
But I got a feeling it's just like the others

Chorus

He's got a big mouth
And he's got big words
And he's got a big knife to cut me down

Is it all because of the fall
But it's not my fault
How long
How long
How long do I have to long

Never been here before
Never walked through this door
But I got a feeling it won't be like the others

Chorus

He's got a big mouth
And he's got big words

And he's got a big knife to cut me down
He's got a big mouth
And he's got big words
And he's got a big knife to cut me down
