[T-Dubb]
yeah pass me that what's up DJ Glaze?
[DJ Glaze] chilling
what's up M'sta?
[Mnmsta] what up Dubb oh man, I'm feeling real good yeah yeah, we did it again, Foesum another album [M] another one for the record books I'd say we gone do what you think Glaze?
[G] it's all bad, let's do it the funny thing is, though man, I I've been thinking about this dope name for the album I finally thought of it [G] what's that?
shit, it's gonna blow your back I think we should call this one, uhh, the FoeFathers that's tight, huh?
[G] yeah, that's tight let me explain it to you you know, the FoeFathers, like being the first ones to put it down we been putting it down, ya know doing our thing all over, since day one [G] press play, they ain't scared no more yeah, the FoeFathers [G] so you ready to do this shit?
[M] yeah, let's do it Glaze, let's do this

[Ricky D]
uh huh, uh huh, yeah Foesum putting it down on the west coast uh huh, worldwide, uh huh where the gangstaz love to play all day, uh huh the homies get slipped on in, uh huh E-White, Kam, damn, uh huh
The Twinz, and the homie Bo-Rocc, uh huh DJ Glaze, with the main ingredients and me, that reptable Ricky D from the CPT, uh huh so M, let's begin

[Mnmsta]

press ya luck on the wrong one to fuck with get outta line and deny that you get touched with kicking in the door, taking hostages whatever's in the way, there ain't no stopping this man, that's the stone since day one built a loyalty, proud and a nun I'm hanging in the cut where the G's at posted up with homies in the weezat time to bring the heat so we hold it down deadly as a sniper with the loaded rounds ready for whatever when we hit static Foesum out the westcoast, Dubb let 'em have it

[T-Dubb]

well if it's on, peep the situation we keep it going so we feel with anticipation loc'd out, thugged out with my loved ones old english 800 got me on one we flip the script to get a grip so ain't no get back mandatory in this game so we did that so keep the focus on the locest cuz I'm all in reminiscing about my niggaz locked up in the pen cuz it was ludacris and they thought I wouldn't be coming back hitting switches, bending corners with these hoodrats so you can miss me if you coming with the small talk I hit the party straight groupies doing the c-walk real talk

[Ricky D]

so there you have it the FoeFathers putting it down from the west to the east understand we don't want peace steadily bringing heat from 2002 still coming through so what you gone do?
