Stevens - Knee Trembler Music - ASCAP

It's three weeks now since I've been gone from Texas
I said goodbye to a man who made me well
Everyday I've got to keep on checkin'
May be I'm right, How'm I gonna tell?

I travel by day and I seem all right
But when the dark comes I'm a fly by night
I'm nobody's fool, 'cause you'll only fool yourself

Feelin' down, there ain't no need to worry
Satisfaction always guaranteed
What you want, I've got the right solution
I can give you everything you need

I travel by day and I seem all right
But when the dark comes I'm a fly by night
I'm nobody's fool, 'cause you'll only fool yourself
Woo!

{Rod - Slide Solo}

Just checked in, to number 507,
Here today, tomorrow I'll be gone.
I ain't no saint, I know I ain't no sinner,
But I guess I've done somebody wrong.

I travel by day and I seem all right
But when the dark comes I'm a fly by night
I'm nobody's fool, 'cause you'll only fool yourself,
I'm nobody's fool, 'cause you'll only fool yourself,
yea!

{Dave - Solo}
