I took myself down to the Tally Ho Tavern

To buy me a bottle of beer

I sat myself down by a tender young maiden

Who's eyes were as dark as her hair

And while I was searching from bottle to bottle

For something un-foolish to say

That silver tounge devil just slipped from the shadows

And smilingly stole her away

Refrain:

I said girl don't you know he's a devil

He's everything that I ain't

Hiding intentions of evil under the smile of a saint

All he's good for is getting in trouble

And slipping his share of the blame

And some people swear he's my double

And some even say we're the same

But the silver-tounge devil's got nothing to lose

And I'll only live 'till I die

We take our own chances and pay our own dues

The silver tounge devil and I

Like all the young ladies who've laid down beside him

She knew in her heart that he lied

But nothing that I could have said could have saved her

No matter how hard that I tried

'Cause she'll offer her soul up to darkness and danger

Of a world that she's never known

And open her arms at the smile of a stranger

Who'll love her and leave her alone
