Hey, doesn't it still look easy as it did to you

Hey, wasn't it true, after all

I couldn't help myself, girl

And I can't blame you

The bigger the fool, the harder the fall

Living on old illusions, and some make believe

That mattered to me, most of all

Closing my eyes to changes I've refused to see

The bigger the fool, the harder the fall

Somewhere in your future, on the far side of your world

You might read my writing on the wall

And think of the easy dreamer who believed in you

The bigger the fool, the harder the fall.

If someday you wake up in a world that's turned on you

And nobody answers when you call

Hey, think of the easy dreamer who believes in you

The bigger the fool, the harder the fall

Think of the crazy dreamer who believes in you

The bigger the fool, the harder the fall.
