You make my brilliant words fumble all I can say is hello so you dont know no you dont know the minute I met you I knew that I loved you and I tried to let you know but my communication is so so so

Dont go baby no dont go dont go baby no dont go Every time I thought I figured it out and let you know not to go something happens and Im left here without you all alone You make my knees buckle and my eyes hit the floor so you dont know no you dont know the second I saw you I started to want you and I tried to let you know but my communication is so so so

Dont go baby no dont go dont go baby no dont go Every time I thought I figured it out and let you know not to go something happens and Im left here without you all alone
