I kept the army held at bay without you and waited for the day you'd say you'd come to take my place and when I walked into your room her letter said she'd meet you there so I left with all my tears Do you feel wrong about leading me on & on & on & on & on & on & on & on I took it off to put you on and now my confidence is gone tell me how was I so wrong I laugh a lot when I'm with friends I spend most of my time with them convincing myself it's not the end Do you feel wrong about leading me on I looked around and found that you were playing with the enemy those suspicious inquiries were all from me now that I found the games that you were playing with the enemy I'm left here to decide to stay or leave do you feel wrong about leading me
on & on & on & on
