You got a house the desert, got house by the sea
You got everything you wanted yeah, everything but
me

You let your guard down, baby let your guard down
Baby let your guard down, baby let your guard
You got a house in the country yeah, one in the city
You got everything you wanted yeah, everything but
me
You let your guard down, baby let your guard down
Baby let your guard down, baby let your guard

Out, you going up... you're picking fights
Meet me in the restaurant, at the end of ...
You let your guard down, baby let your guard down
Baby let your guard down, baby let your guard
I take my ... and you can rest on yours
I'll meet up in the middle baby
Just to do the chores
I'll cooking in and cleaning in All I ever knew, about being in love is What I learned from you
I let your guard down, baby let my guard down
Baby let my guard down, baby let my guard

Yeah, you gone away... you sleep
Yeah, you gone away...you sleep, sleep, sleep
Yeah, you gone away...you sleep, sleep, sleep
But I can't give you what you need
I got a house in the country, got a house by the sea
I got everything I wanted yeah everything but me
I let my guard down, baby let my guard down
Baby let my guard down, baby let my guard

Yeah let your guard you, baby let your guard you
Baby let your guard you, baby let your guard you
God damn,

I got a house in the country, got a house by the sea
I got everything I wanted yeah everything but me
You let your guard down, baby let your guard down
Baby let your guard down, baby let your guard

You let your guard down, baby let your guard down
Baby let your guard down, baby let your guard down.
