On snow covered mountains
My soul lies to sleep
Silent crying inside
My pain is so deep
Counting the days
As time passes by
Thinking of past times
I break down and cry
Life will never be the same again
Counting timeless tears
Which I spillt for you
You are my obsession
I don't know where you're gone to
I dream a dream of Hope
Under Moonlight stars
Tortured by reality
Which has left it's scars
Life will never be the same again
In a World without feelings
My dreams are all dead
No one beside me
I know where I am at
Embracing the Silence
In my loneliness
Trying not to fear
All the things I posses
Life will never be the same again
