Feel the cage
Let free the rage
See the lies
That surround us
Feel the laws
Let free your rage
See the walls
That do bind us
Resurrect your soul from its forced sleep
Resurrect your thoughts, that were silenced long ago
Resurrect your love, from It's dense keep Resurrect your passion, unleash your will, unleash your soul
Break the chains
Of all morality
Unleash your will
And you will see
All you are
All you can be
All you are
All that you will be
Break the laws
Of our society
Unleash your will
Be all you can be
Resurrect your soul from its forced sleep
Resurrect your thoughts, that were silenced long ago
Resurrect your love, from It's dense keep Resurrect your passion, unleash your will, unleash your mind
