"Tears In The Rain"

Hollow cries and fading faces
Searching all those empty places
Alone in pain, alone in fear
And rain washes away my final tear (my final tear..)
The words I suffered in decay
Leave me no more room to stay
The things that you have said to me
Are washed away along with my memory (with my memory..)
We are all lost
Like tears in the rain
And the water from above
Kills the final flame
Dreams I've dreamed, and wishes ceased
I feel the inner demon's pleased
The wheel keeps turning endlessly
I let the rain fall down on me
The gentle water flowing down
The collapsed soul that wants to drown
This was my kingdom, now it's lost
In the gentle rain I trust
We are all lost
Like tears in the rain
And the water from above
Kills the final flame
