All of my life I wanted to be different from the prey
All of my life I had absolutely nothing to say
But my mind grew up as time passed by
And so I realize that friendship's nothing, it's nothing but a lie
These mortal feelings keep telling lies
And you're just too stupid to realize
The pain deep within my heart
Deep within my soul
I left my past behind of me
Except for the things you did to me
Atrocities of a mental kind
They made me sick, they made me blind
They made me sick, they made me blind
They made me sick, they made me blind
These mortal feelings keep telling lies
And you're just too stupid to realize
The pain deep within my heart
Deep within my soul
All my life I wanted to be different from the prey
All my life I had absolutely nothing to say
But my mind grew up as time passed by
And so I realized that friendship's nothing, it's nothing
but a lie
I left my past behind of me
Except for the things you did to me
Atrocities of a mental kind
They make me sick, they make me blind
These mortal feelings keep telling lies
And you're just too stupid to realize
The pain deep within my heart
Deep within my soul
