Hey beautiful, say that your happy, and i have made it worth your while.
Hey beautiful, don't long for yesterday, better times will come your way, so let me see that pretty smile.
Hey beautiful, your imperfections to me are perfect, so don't you feel so out of place.
Hey pretty girl, we'll watch the sunrise illuminate the skies, casting shadows on your face.

My mother smokes herself to death with every drawing
breath on that cigarette she smokes.
My dad is on the dole, but i am happy.

Hey babydoll, lay down beside me and let me whisper
all the words i long to say.
Hey beautiful, i would die for one chance to take your breath away.
Hey beautiful, you draw the curtains and i'll feel you tremble underneath these sheets.
Hey pretty girl, it's been a while since i've known what it felt like to be feeling so complete.

My mother smokes herself to death with every drawing
breath on that cigarette she smokes.
My dad is on the dole, but i am happy.

Everybody take notes, this is what, this is what real love looks like.
Now don't forget to breathe.
My heart is pounding in my chest, i'm falling way out of my debth, i'm finding this hard to believe.
This is what, this is what real love feels like.

Hey beautiful..

My mother smokes herself to death with every drawing
breath on that cigarette she smokes.
My dad is on the dole, but i am happy.
I am, I am happy.
