Late at night i'm feeling something that i can't disguise

So i get too close to you

Well i can't believe that you and i never came to this

All those nights with you right by my side craving for one kiss

Do you believe in miracles

Can you feel when i'm close to you

Baby do you believe i believe in you

Here we are

Drifting slowly on a lonely star

And i hope it never ends

All those nights with you right by my side craving for a kiss

Do you believe in miracles

Can you feel when i'm close to you

Baby do you believe i believe in you

Do you believe we can take the world

All we need is a love that's true

Baby do you believe i believe in you

You hold they key to my world in your hand

Between a woman and a man

Do you believe in miracles

Do you believe in miracles

Can you feel when i'm close to you

etc
