In Loveland,

Where everybody lives co love.

Raindrops never rain,

Every road is Lovers' Lane

In Loveland,

Where everybody loves to live.

See that sunny sun and honeymoon,

There where seven hundred days hath June.

Sweetheart, take my hand,

Let us find that wondrous land

Called Loveland, Loveland, Loveland...

FIRST CAVALIER:

The lover is transported by his rapture,

As ever heavenwards his heart ascends.

CHORUS:

Loveland, where everybody lives to love.

SECOND CAVALIER:

The lover's heart contains a lover's secret.

Which only the beloved comprehends.

CHORUS:

Loveland, where everybody loves to live.

THIRD CAVALIER:

To lover's eyes, a lover's eyes are jewels,
More radiant than the stars that light the sky.

CHORUS:

Loveland, Loveland...

FOURTH CAVALIER:

Two lovers in devotion,
If separated, they must swoon and die.

CHORUS:

Loveland, Loveland...

Bells ring, fountains splash,
Folks use kisses 'stead of cash
In Loveland. Loveland...
Love, Love, Loveland...
Love, Love, Loveland...

Love!
