You got to have rock love within your heart
You got to have rock love before you start
So when temptation tries to move your soul
The rocks of love won't let you roll
When I hear gossip you roam
And clouds of doubt begin to form
Rock love will weather the storm
You got to have rock love to call your own
It's got to be rock love as all of us know
So when the strong winds blow and the waters shift
The rock of love won't let you drift
When everybody turns you down
And a friend in need just can't be found
Rock love is always around.

You got to have rock love within your heart
You got to have rock love before you start
So when temptation tries to move your soul
The rocks of love won't let you roll
When I hear gossip you roam
And clouds of doubt begin to form
Strong winds blow and the waters shift
The rock of love won't let you drift
When everybody turns you down
And a friend in need just can't be found
Rock love is always around.
