Everybody
Let's go!
Don't stop baby, Don't stop me
I like the way that you move and girl you know how I do.

[Farnsworth]
It's in your hip
I want to get right between your strip
Use it like Lancome lipstick Scarlett, and frankly i really do care, madam.
All you will, this is Sa-Ra fam, now back to ma'am
I know that you can move like that I saw you dance.
And now you you gotta show out, make me a fan.
Turn up the fan, we gon sweat crazy What's your favorite Gatorade, lady Hadn't been shopping, feed you water maybe I hope you ain't hungry got mash but no gravy
But we can make some, the best of both juices
We can use this, this some new shit
Make it hot like Crisco
That's how my flow go, shorty you ain't know?
If you ain't po, stop being so high post My music ain't just for the siditty and pretty it's for

Everybody
Don't stop baby, Don't stop me
Don't stop baby, Don't stop me
Don't stop baby, Don't stop me
Don't stop baby, Don't stop me
I like the way that you move
and girl you know how I do

[ANDRE 3000]
Shorty you killin em hard with them lady pants simple elegance looking better when you dance chest to the sun with your thoroughbred stance you gallop to the rhythms of a native drum chant your granny must be navajo your mama do rodeo, your papa do the SAVILLE ROW i bite you, ain't no antidotes the red blouse do arouse, i come at you like a matador does attract horny bulls all the girls are waiting to see which one he pulls eenie meenie miney meenie prenuptial enforcer in the porsche in case fools wanna duel you'll cool your fuckin jets, who wanna be next? ooh, i'll probably get life if i let one off, so i let em go like a pro Sir Andre with an accent 3 triple 0 Ben-jamin, Lauren is the middle name that was given by my mama, success was on her brain rain? Bentley Farns got the umbrellas Benjamin got the sweaters, hey what more can we sell em?

Sun, spring will bring the parasol
Now watch him parasail to entertain us all

Everybody
Don't stop baby, Don't stop me
Don't stop baby, Don't stop me
Don't stop baby, Don't stop me
Don't stop baby, Don't stop me
