I was born with nothin, you had everything I got a cloud that follows me around you got Everythin you need

You think this world is for free, ain't got time to make you see

I don't care what you got, it doesn't matter to me
You got a lot but one thing you ain't got is Peace and harmony,

You think this world is for free, ain't got time to make you see, Oh no.

Big world little man life isn't yours to fool with, you'll lose it
Big man little world too much to lose, believe it, I mean it

Time ran out for you, only dust remains Pickin up the pieces ain't gonna work
At the end of your arrogant games

You think that life is for free, ain't got time to make you see

Big world little man life isn't yours to fool with, you'll
lose it
Big man little world too much to lose, believe it, I mean it, alright
Big world little man life isn't yours to fool with, you'll
lose it
Big world little man life isn't yours you'll lose it

You think you got all the answers
And money buys you friends
You ain't got no time for reasons
It's a big world for a little man

Big world little man life isn't yours to fool with, you'll
lose it
Big man little world too much to lose, believe it, I mean

it, alright
Big world little man life isn't yours to fool with, you'll
lose it
Big world little man life isn't yours you'll lose it
It's a big world for a little man
