Can't think of anything else to say to you
Why does this always turn out
The way we never want it to
Let's try to give our worlds a chance this time
Let's see how far we can go
Let it go

Let it go

I can't handle anything else you say to me
Why do I feel so weak
With every word you speak
Let's try not to take this so damn far again
Because one thing I can't do
Is end up hating you
Is end up hating you

I wish I could wrap my arms around you
Never letting you go
Just tell me what I should be
And there's still nothing worth letting you go

Let it go

We've tried these things a million times before
These promises are lies
What do we make them for?
We said that we would never talk again
Now we're back on the phone
Your voice feels, it feels like home
Your voice feels like home

I wish I could wrap my arms around you
Never letting you go
Just tell me what I should be
And there's still nothing worth letting you go

Let it go
Let it go

Now we say we're done with each other

But we can't leave it alone
And I think I'd rather have it that way
Than know you're really gone

Let it go
Let it go

I wish I could wrap my arms around you
Never letting you go
Just tell me what I should be
And there's still nothing worth letting you go

Let it go
Let it go.
