I'm sorry I missed those things
That made you happy in your life
Memories are scattered
Seems I never took the time
To do the things you wanted
Now a whole is left inside
And I know you're leaving
At least maybe I could of tried
I would of tried

Say it, say it, say it's ok
I wanna know that you have forgiven me
Say it, say it, say you know me
For the person I should of been
To you when you were with me

There's so many things I wanted
Just to get to say to you
The day will never come
To speak my mind and tell the truth
I was left there waiting
And there was no way to get through
And now all I know is that
It feels just like I carried you

Say it, say it, say it's ok
I wanna know that you have forgiven me
Say it, say it, say you know me
For the person I should of been
To you when you were with me
When you were with me

And I'm angry you know
That I can't let it go
And maybe you know
That I can't let it go

Say it, say it, say it's ok
I wanna know that you have forgiven me
Say it, say it, say you know me
For the person I should of been

Say it, say it, say it's ok
I wanna know that you have forgiven me
Say it, say it, say you know me
For the person I should of been
To you when you were with me

When you were with me
