"I'm Gonna Fly"

One day, the whole world looks like an open page and you've been dancing as fast as you can with that smile on your face and then the earth and the sky they open together and carry me away as light as a feather chase the clouds from the ground in the big blue sky dont wanna watch it all go by so im gonna fly higher then i ever could feel the wind blow through my hair feel the sun dance with the moon and my feet cant stay on the ground any longer with every leap of faith I feel a little stronger wanna swing from a star in the big blue sky dont wanna watch it all go by so im gonna fly gonna see for myself what it looks like from up there taste the stardust in my mouth chase the clouds until they disappear

with every leap of faith I feel a little stronger
wanna swing from a star in the big blue sky dont wanna watch it all go by so im gonna fly... fly... fly.. fly... higher than ever i ever could
im gonna fly
im gonna fly
