"Another Cliche"

theres nothing i can say or do the game is ruined and i am stuck with feelings that can't be used i hold them inside until they force their way out they streak down my face in aimless lines

the darkened spots on my shirt are fading but i still feel hurt i wish i had never started why can't we go back to stop the hurt before it starts?

let's just be friends thanks for another cliche my days are going downhill today must mark the bottom from here I can only go up i don't see the next days as being something i will enjoy the sky is dark and raining it reflects my feelings prefectly i wish i could stop the feelings i write these words hoping hoping it will help but the more i write the more i see it's not helping this past month and a half of ups and downs is what I have to remember for the days spent with thoughts of you so many wasted thoughts so many wasted poems too much wasted time i tried so hard it wasn't good enough for you you think that its all fine your slight neglections weren't that big of deal at least not to you

someone lift me up it hurts so much to be here alone there is no one to talk to you are here, but i can't talk to you you won't understand because you see everything as fine
