"Illusion of Friendship"

Visit "Illusion of Friendship" on MotoLyrics.com

(this illusion of friendship)
may be keeping you satisfied but its not doing me any good i'm tired of being your friend only when its convenient to you you tell me you miss me but why do those feelings never go past your words the only one you're fooling is yourself (because) your apollogy means nothing without intention of change

(this illusion of friendship)
may be wearing me too thin but i don't think you really notice you're caught up in the busy life but I guess I am too so I guess it can't be all on you and I'm just as much to blame

(this illusion of friendship)
has gone on for too long but now you're used to it this isn't the way I would have it i want things like they were back when busy wasn't a factor and back when you seemed to care
