I've messed up, again
(And) Will you forgive me, again
I'm not so proud of all the things I've done
But you're oh so proud of everything I am
Because in the end we're all that we've got
(So) I'll take a deep breath and I'll pray it's not my last

Living life alone is no life at all

I messed up, again
And you forgave me, again
I'm not so proud of all the things I do
But you're oh so proud of everything I'll be Because right now, we're the only one's we've got
(So) I'm taking deep breaths and I pray they're not my last

And I say that we've got so far to go
