"Should I Be the First"

has he ever told you, "you are beautiful?" and did he mean it the way he says he's "so sorry?"
so many lines that aren't sincere

(should I be the first)
to choke up on three words for such a wonderful girl and will you take my words as lightly as in the past? or will you cherish them as if they were my last?

has he ever said, "give me one more chance?"
and did you believe him even though it was his 10th screw up this year
so many walls that aren't so clear

I know that I am just another guy and I never said that I am what you need all I know is that you deserve better than him have you ever been told, "you are beautiful, and amazing and you mean so much to me?"

well I'm telling you now and I mean it more than anything
