[Verse One: Need Not Worry]

He came home from school and he heard the bad news sad but true, he really not known to deal with the situation, boy can't cry when he did for a little bit but then it passed by life has changed living on his own planet kickin and he slammin, yo he's straight van damme'in he couldnt grieve, fuck he couldnt even breath cus all he did was fill (havoc from mob....(madd empty bags of weed))

A high school sweet teen turning to a street fiend fast skipping every high school class last but not least, a 12 yard dash to feed the fiends and make the quick fast cash smoking in the bathroom sipping on a 40 more naughty than the song "me so horny" spiral...out of control... a young soul who couldnt warmen when his world got cold hook: 8 bars accompanied by crew

.....Now he's gonna brighten up the sun (every other bar)...therefore repeated 4 times.but the hook spans 8 bars

[Verse Two: Need Not Worry]

We go round a bout, we got a fresh pot brewed it was sad but true, he's just a drug deal dude and tall paul's gone within the eye of the storm he rock, rock on, he want to righten up the wrong It's gonna take a long time, he's abrasive just smoking a little bit of weed in his basement a little analyitcal of how his mental state been staying off the corner and evading all his main men his main man got knocked, 5 to 10 so it took him out a little bit from what he done did like the automobile grand theft to armed robberies know he better off with lifestyle of mediocraty bare essential, back to school and residential paul up out the picture makes it easy for the let go ..a trife life making moves and such he getting back into the swing of things and moving on up/ (because)

.....Now he's gonna brighten up the sun (every other bar)...therefore repeated 4 times.but the
hook spans 8 bars

[Verse Three: Need Not Worry]

Now he back in school to straighten up a little bit won't quit, one year left to be on some legit shit months after...the robbery that captured.... his man, he on the brink of honor roll stature a plan mastered, college is attracting spun full circle, now he not a thief bastard slowly...but surely, smoothin out the edginess stay a little jagged for he sleeping with the skeletons he working thru it, he do a little dirt.. to keep level..not to the extent of being rebel cool,calm,collected...he not getting arrested making better selections, living thru a lesson stay in classrooms no smoking in the bathroom back pack fool, now focused with an attitude he writes letters to paul and stays honest and after 12th grade he went straight to college.(accompanied by pete rock from d/w/the kings) hook to fade.....as many bars as we like son!!
