How can you be so evil, baby
And still say you aren't
How can you be so evil, baby
And still say you aren't

You're such an evil woman
I'm afraid to close my eye

When I come home in the evenin'
And I'm five minutes late
When I come home in the evenin'
And I'm five minutes late

You start right out believin', baby
I must have had a date

Well, I can't go to barber
Don't have a dime for a shave
Can't go to the barber, baby
Don't have a dime for a shave

You just sit home and holla, mama
You [Incomprehensible] drive me to my grave
