I was lost and blind 'til a friend of mine
Came and took me by the hand.
Then he led me to his kingdom
That was in another land.
Now my life is changed, it's rearranged.
When I think of my past I feel so strange.
Wowie, zowie, well he saved my soul.
He's the rock that doesn't roll.

He's the rock that doesn't roll.
He's the rock that doesn't roll.
He's good for the body and great for the soul.
He's the rock that doesn't roll.

I was all alone like a rolling stone,
I was going nowhere fast.
I was on the road so far from home
When the future touched my past.
Now I feel so blessed 'cause he gave me a rest
And I finally feel like I've passed the test.
I wanna be like him, yes that's my goal
Like a rock that doesn't roll
