O.K. so today I'll try again crash and burn just like yesterday please don't let me die
I slammed on the cross bar and I don't know why

Just as the world is getting me down I can say I'll put my feet back on the ground and all the little words were said if I keep it up, I'll probably end up dead

I'm trying I'm learning but getting nowhere watching every one fly by it just isn't fair I can try again, fuck up again
Even on a deck I'll brake my leg

I don't wanna please don't make me go broken bones
