

Enemy, The "Don't Break the Red Tape"

Visit "Don't Break the Red Tape" on MotoLyrics.com

Welcome to England, there is no fun, where there is no choice for any of us where there is no left there is no right new labours a joke just another thatcherite

Don't break the red tape, don't break the red tape

try and stop us try and stop us try and stop us don't

try and stop us try and stop us try and stop us don't

try and stop us try and stop us try and stop us don't

try and stop us!

Welcome to England where there is no love, where the dreams of children vanish in the dust where the young and old die living in their sleep, and the only excitements supermarket sweep

Don't break the red tape, don't break the red tape

try and stop us try and stop us try and stop us don't

try and stop us try and stop us try and stop us don't

try and stop us!

try and stop us try and stop us try and stop us don't

try and stop us try and stop us try and stop us don't

try and stop us!

Shut up, sit down and listen

Shut up, sit down and listen
