You spend your time in smokey rooms where haggled old women with cheap perfume say it never happens for people like us you know well nothing ever happened on it's own and well the toilets smell of desperation the streets all echo of aggregation tand you wonder why you cant get no sleep when you've got nothing to do, and you've had nothing to eat your life's slipping and sliding right out of view and there's absolutely nothing that you can do well

we'll live and die,
we'lllive and die in these towns
don't let it drag you down don't let it drag you down now
we'll live and die,
we'lllive and die in these towns
don't let it drag you down

dirty dishes from a tv meal that went cold from the wind throuh a smashed up window you cant go out if anybody calls ya cos you cant have a bath when there's no hot water and your friends are out on the town again and you ask yourself if it will ever end and it's all too much for your head to take just a matter of time before you break, well

we'll live and die,

we'll live and die,

now...

we'll live and die,
we'll live and die,
