Yesterday, broke your heart and she ran away
Like a moment in time
You'll kick back and hit the rewind
Come along, don't look back you must leave and run
As you ask yourself when
The repeat is starting again

You find it and waste it
You just get to taste it
But you've been unlucky all night
Now that she's gone
It's goodbye and so long
And you sit there and think of her face
Surely it's better that way

Tonight, someone's all alone.....

Come along, don't look back you must you must leave and run
As you ask yourself when
The repeat is starting again
Make your plans, benefit in the end
Just be yourself
And then you won't need any help
You find it and waste it
You just get to taste it
But you've been unlucky all night
Now that she's gone
It's goodbye and so long
And you sit there and think of her face
Surely it's better that way

Tonight, Someone's all alone....

Rewind.....
