Walk into the library and what do I see?
The Korean monument telling me freedom isn't free.
And don't you think there is a better design for the desk?
'Cause honestly in my opinion swastikas aren't best.
The Nazism of George Bush has infested our schools.
But let me tell you one thing kids: Nazism isn't cool!
Respect and loyalty are the signs that I read.
But I wish they were loyal to and respected what the bleed.

One lie, two lie, three lie, four!
We all know within minutes there'll be a hundred more.
We all know that there is only one solution.
We all know we can't go on without revolution.

I thought I left Anarchy in the Lunchroom behind
Not knowing all the new kinds of "anarchies" I would find.
I want to take out everyone in the library
Because they treat me like I'm dumb, like I'm not ordinary.
You know life isn't based on bibliographies;
The only things that matter are my A, B, C's, and D's.
Life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness,
Not the pursuit of those who threaten it, you're leaving me breathless.

One lie, two lie, three lie, four!
We all know within minutes there'll be a hundred more.
We all know that there is only one solution.
We all know we can't go on without revolution.

Without a revolution...

We all know that there is only one solution.
We all know we can't go on without revolution.
