"Too Wry To Mention"

When someone goes "how are you today?", again?
And it's wry how we are all done
With our popcorn at the movies when the show is not even on
It's wry
It's too wry to mention
Ain't it just ridiculous sometimes?
Ain't it wry when we put our volume down to park
When we see a bride dressed in white, when we use artificial blonde
And it's wry when we find out that Labor day
Is just a holiday
It's wry
It's too wry to mention
Ain't it just ridiculous sometimes?
But it's just so wry when we nod but we didn't get all the meaning
And we smile
It's wry
It's too wry to mention
Ain't it just ridiculous sometimes?
We may think it's all too wry to bring it out!
