Lovin' is all that I ask you
Heartache is all that you send
And loneliness is livin' without you
Since you and I came to an end
I will go on, I will be strong
'Cos nothin' you can do will break my will
And if you can't see
All the lovin' inside of me
You don't deserve me anyway
Baby, all my time and emotion
All my love and devotion
Has been wasted on you
So baby, I'll be leavin' tomorrow
Don't forget all my sorrow
And the ache in my heart
To leave behind
All those years that I've wasted
All those tears that I've tasted
Since we fell apart
I will go on, I will be strong
'Cos nothin' you can do will break my will
And if you can't see
All the lovin' inside of me
You don't deserve me anyway
Baby, all my time and emotion
All my love and devotion
Has been wasted on you
