Yeah, it's Mills
I'm not usually the type
To do this shit
But uh I just had to so fuck it

If you feel me then you know what this is all about
Wow, did I just take it there now
How did someone have the audacity
To come after me taxin' my master piece
Nah, they won't get no stacks off me
Fuck 'em once, fuck 'em twice, now here's three Speak shame on my name to improve game
But your girlfriend's friend told me everything Yeah, you should watch who you're talkin' to Break your back please don't plan on walkin' through I'll throw a bitch in the window of your living room
Strap the cash in and I need my fucking answer soon
Or I'll have a second album up for ransom suit Cause I just can't comprehend how you could do that to a friend
I hope you lay awake in bed and just think and just think

One day imma make it rain
And imma laugh all the way to the bank
Saying fuck an umbrella, fuck an umbrella
Fuck an umbrella, fuck an umbrella
And imma keep my head up and
Do my own thing through all this bullshit
Saying fuck fake friends and bitches
I only trust music, music

It's not about the money for me, it's about my team
I've been heavy in some shit and now I'm finally clean
It's ironic how a label that doesn't have any green
Wants to hold a kid back from persuing a life dream
What the fuck does that make me?
Dollar signs in your eyes?
That's why this song is free
Cause I could give a fuck about all your problems, save it

You'll be sorry when I'm rich and famous
Brah, this business is shameless
That's why to me you'll forever remain nameless Yeah, forgettin' where I came from Shit, I've done everything since day one
Uhm, imma keep pushing these envelopes
Let's see who's the first to leave
Plus I know I'm always in the lead
P.S. I'm the reason why my album leaked

One day imma make it rain
And imma laugh all the way to the bank
Saying fuck an umbrella, fuck an umbrella
Fuck an umbrella, fuck an umbrella
And imma keep my head up and
Do my own thing through all this bullshit
Saying fuck fake friends and bitches
I only trust music, music

Imma live in the sky some day
I'll be sure not to let you know
And I think I found a way to not say a word but get your secrets told

Imma live in the sky some day
I'll be sure not to let you know
And I think I found a way to not say a word but get your
secrets told

One day imma make it rain
And imma laugh all the way to the bank
Saying fuck an umbrella, fuck an umbrella
Fuck an umbrella, fuck an umbrella
And imma keep my head up and
Do my own thing through all this bullshit
Saying fuck fake friends and bitches
I only trust music, music
