I'm not gonna try to read your mind but I think you should know I won't fall apart
I'll be just fine
If you need to go

I'm not a fool
I've seen your eyes don't laugh, don't be cruel and don't let your nice and just love me cuz you want to not because you wanna be kind give me something to hold on to cuz i don't want you wasting no time and now the rest is up to you love me cuz you want to and if I try new something Its ok, I'll move right along you can try to bring back yesterday but the feeling is gone

theres no where to hide so play by the rules and drop the disguise

getting colder like the weather will you be there when the lights go out wanna hold you make it better but the rain just keeps on falling down just love me cuz you want to and not because you want to be kind
